

Variance Application – Applicant’s Letter of Intent

The burden of proof of “unnecessary hardship rests upon the applicant and, without such proof, a Variance must be denied. Also, the hardship must be created by the ordinance, not by the applicant. The Monona County Board of Adjustment should keep in mind what the Iowa courts have said unnecessary hardships is shown by establishing all of the following elements while considering each application for a Variance from the Monona County Zoning Ordinance.

- The land in question cannot yield a reasonable return if used only for a purpose allowed in that zone; and
- The plight of the landowner is due to unique circumstances and not to general conditions in the neighborhood; and
- The use to be authorized by the variance will not alter the essential character of the locality.

For the Monona County Board of Adjustment to grant a Variance, the applicant is responsible for responding to all of the Standards outlined below in the form of a written narrative. This written narrative shall be submitted with the applicant’s Variance application.
